Description

When you look at this painting maybe it brings back memories of a wonderful holiday staying in that amazing farmhouse letting all your stresses just float away. watercolour From Peter Stopper's series of JEWELS OF CORNWALL Cornwall openly shows its unique beauty to the sensitive observer. Peter Stopper conveys architecture and the structure of the landscape through his free-spirited creativity. Creativity arises when the courage to create new perspectives replace old ones. A painting is full-value when it reflects the painter's soul. Abstract elements in a painting emphasize the individuality of the artist and inspire the observer's imagination.
