Description

This painting captures the essence of the Cornish landscape; grasses and gorse fill the foreground in front of ancient farm buildings. Behind them the fields stretch away to the west and towards the coast and the Atlantic. Ink and acrylic on Fabriano heavyweight paper, varnished. Mounted onto backing card and floated in a dark tray frame. Steven Buckler is a Cornish artist whose expressive mark making and bold use of colour not only captures the unique landscape in all its glory, but also the light and atmosphere for which Cornwall is famed. Steven works almost entirely on paper, favouring a high quality heavy Fabriano paper. In order to ensure the work is preserved and protected he applies a clear varnish to finished pieces and ensures that all mounting is done with specialist acid free materials. The final result is a work on paper more robust than a canvas and with the same longevity. CLICK AND BUY OR PHONE 01326 219323, mobile 07913 848515
